

Challenge Cards: Front (1)

You see a hemlock branch with tiny white tufts on the twig.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

You forget to brush off your jacket and backpack after hiking in a hemlock forest.

You could bring hemlock woolly adelgid home.

Move back 1 space.

You see an ash tree with side sprouts coming off the main trunk.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

You see an ash tree with bark pecked off by a woodpecker.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

You see dime-sized bite marks on a maple tree.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

You see piles of sawdust on a maple tree.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

You visit friends in another state and see an adult spotted lanternfly on your car.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

You see the early nymph stage of spotted lanternfly.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

Challenge Cards: Front (2)

WILD CARD!

It's your lucky day!
Move up 3 spaces!

You bring firewood from home to camp. You could be spreading emerald ash borer. The park ranger takes your wood away.

Move back 1 space.

WILD CARD!

Don't get left behind,
move up to the nearest game changer space!

WILD CARD!

You are on a mountain bike,
speed ahead 4 spaces!

You see holes an inch deep and as wide as a pencil on a maple tree.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

You bring firewood from Massachusetts back home.
You could be bringing Asian longhorned beetle back too.

Move back 2 spaces.

You see the late nymph stage of spotted lanternfly.

You do nothing.

Move back 1 space.

At the beginning of camping season, you see spotted lanternfly eggs on a camp chair.

You do nothing.

Move back 2 spaces.

Challenge Cards: Front (3)

You see a hemlock branch with tiny white tufts on the twig.

You take a picture and send it to VTinvasives.org.

Move up 3 spaces.

When you leave a hemlock forest you brush off your jacket and backpack.

Hooray! You do not spread hemlock woolly adelgid.

Move up 2 spaces.

You see an ash tree with side sprouts.

You take a picture and report it to VTinvasives.org.

Move up 3 spaces.

You see an ash tree with bark peeled off by a woodpecker.

You take a picture and show it to the park ranger.

Move up 2 spaces.

You see dime-sized bite marks on a maple tree.

You take a picture and report it to VTinvasives.org.

Move up 3 spaces.

You see piles of sawdust on a tree.

You note where it is and tell the park ranger.

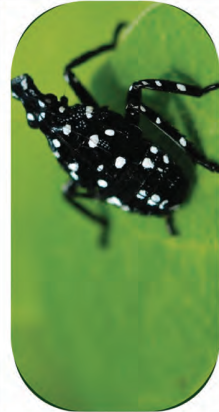

Move up 3 spaces.

You visit a state with spotted lanternfly.

You check your car before going home and smash an adult spotted lanternfly.

Move up 3 spaces.

You see the early nymph stage of spotted lanternfly.

You send a picture to VTinvasives.org.

Move up 1 space.

Challenge Cards: Front (4)

You brush your horse down after a ride through a forest.

Hooray! You are not spreading tiny pests.

Move up 3 spaces.

When packing up your campsite you brush off all your gear to avoid bringing pests like hemlock woolly adelgid home.

Move up 2 spaces.

You buy firewood at the campground instead of bringing it from home.

Hooray! You prevent spreading emerald ash borer.

Move up 3 spaces.

WILD CARD!

You find a secret trail! Go to the first space in front of everyone else.

You see holes on a maple tree.

You tell the sugarmaker they may have Asian longhorned beetle.

Move up 2 spaces.

Instead of bringing firewood from home, you gather it at the campsite when that is allowed.

You avoid spreading pests.

Move up 3 spaces.

You see the late nymph stage of spotted lanternfly.

You send a picture to VTinvasives.org.

Move up 1 space.

You are getting ready to go camping and see spotted lanternfly egg masses on a camp chair.

You scrape them off.

Move up 2 spaces.

Challenge Cards: Front (5)

WILD CARD!

It's your lucky day -
move up 3 spaces

WILD CARD!

You have memorized the signs of all the forest pests.

Move up 3 spaces.

WILD CARD!

Surprise! You win an extra turn!

Move up 1 space and take another card.

WILD CARD!

It's your lucky day -
move up 2 spaces

Challenge Cards: Back (1)

Challenge Cards: Back (2)

